Design, innovation and craftsmanship together to create CAMBIANO, the brand new business class seat of Iacobucci HF Aerospace in collaboration with Pininfarina

March 31st 2017 – Ferentino (FR) ITALY. Iacobucci HF Aerospace, world leader in innovative, integrated and exclusive solutions for commercial and business aircraft, is proud to announce his collaboration with Pininfarina to create CAMBIANO, the brand new seat for mid-range in commercial aviation.

Iacobucci HF Aerospace will exhibit at Aircraft Interiors Expo 2017 in Hamburg (4-6 April 2017) introducing his latest development, a brand new seat as an example of passion, craftsmanship, commitment to quality, attention to details, innovation and technology. Furthermore, the robust and committed Italian supply chain, gives the seat the extra value. A business class project with high-quality design to ensure a unique in flight experience.

"I consider today's business environment a continuous challenge - comments Lucio Iacobucci, President and CEO of Iacobucci HF Aerospace – to win this challenge a company has to fear obsolescence and must always try to be ahead of its time, through innovation and development. The moment this is stopped the obsolescence era begins. For this reason, as part of continuous innovation I strongly believe there is enough need and space in the aviation industry for new companies with new ideas when it comes to passenger seats".

For the first time Iacobucci HF Aerospace approaches the business class's sector, to ensure maximum space, superior comfort and passengers will arrive at destination completely relaxed and refreshed.

Iacobucci HF Aerospace and Pininfarina, introducing CAMBIANO, offer to customers, a solution focused on design, elegance and quality creating a new way of living the business class, surrounding passengers and ensuring an unforgettable experience on board.
